One of these great movies runs all day long. You pay once that day, then you and your family can see it as many times as you like that day at no additional charge!

The Gauntlet. Clint Eastwood stars in an action movie that will rattle the windows in your house! Eastwood, with his now-famous "Dirty Harry" roles behind him, plays downtrodden detective Ben Shockley. Sandra Locke co-stars as a Las Vegas hooker whose life is threatened by the mob because of what she'll say in court. Together, Eastwood and Locke take on the vicious forces of a crooked world in a series of unbelievable escapes and ferocious gun battles. The Gauntlet is rated R due to violence, adult language, and the mature situations. July 5, 8, 14, 17, 20, 23, 25, 29. $2.50

The Last Remake of Beau Geste. Starring Marty Feldman, Ann-Margaret, Michael York and Peter Ustinov in one of the funniest, craziest, most delightfully zany movies you'll see! Feldman also directs this comic gem, and zeroes in on the Foreign Legion, Gary Cooper and sex as the major targets for his wild wit. Peter Ustinov has a pricelessly funny part as Markov! And Gary Cooper actually appears — in a scene from the 1939 classic on which this movie is based. This movie is rated PG because of a multitude of jokes and gags about the human body (which may or may not go over the heads of young children). July 2, 6, 9, 11, 15, 21, 26, 31. $2.50

Final Chapter — Walking Tall. Starring Bo Svenson in an action-packed, heartrending drama from Bing Crosby Productions. This movie concludes the 3-part story of the true-life adventures of legendary Tennessee lawman Buford Pusser. You will witness the tragic and mysterious conclusion to Pusser's life — after he'd already lost his wife, his job, and his girlfriend. The tale of one man's fight for what he believed in. Rated R due to the sheriff's love interest and the violence that followed him everywhere. July 1, 4, 10, 13, 16, 19, 24, 28. $2.50

Part 2, Sounder. For your whole family! Sixty million people saw Sounder, and fell in love with the Morgan family. Now you can follow the heartwarming adventures of the Morgans as they dedicate themselves to building a schoolhouse for the children who would otherwise get no education. Set in Louisiana in the 1930's, Part 2, Sounder shows the conditions of black sharecroppers with dignity, humanity and compassion. Beautiful scenes and family themes make this G rated film a must. July 3, 7, 12, 18, 22, 27, 30. $2.50
