

CLASSICS & ENCORES

1. Black Sunday (1977) Encore. Bruce Dern (currently starring in Coming Home) plays a demented Vietnam vet who intends to help Arab terrorist Marthe Keller blow up the Super Bowl! Robert Shaw is the crack Israeli agent who tries to stop them. Best of the crisis blockbusters! Rated R due to adult language, adult situations and violence. July 1-10, 12-16, 18, 20-31. $1.50

2. A Star Is Born (1955). The legendary Judy Garland in a once-in-a-lifetime performance! You saw Streisand in the same role last month — now see how much the new version was changed to reflect the changing times! James Mason co-stars. July 2, 4, 6-10, 12, 14, 16, 18-20, 22, 24, 25, 27, 29, 31. $1.00

3. Days of Wine and Roses (1962). Jack Lemmon and Lee Remick star as a couple tragically overcome by alcoholism. Lemmon's superb performance as a lush heightens the drama of a man who persuades his wife to take up "social drinking," then can't get her to stop. July 1-3, 5-8, 10, 12, 15, 17, 19-21, 23, 24, 26, 28-31. $1.00

4. The Cocoanuts (1929). Groucho, Chico, Harpo and Zeppo! This is the movie that started the Marx Brothers movie madness! It's also one of the first movies made with a sound track — from an era when talkies were as new as Qube is today. July 1, 3, 4, 6, 8, 10-12, 14, 15, 17-19, 21-26, 28, 29, 31. $1.00

5. 3:10 to Yuma (1957). One of the all-time great Westerns — ranks with High Noon and Shane! Glenn Ford is the notorious outlaw, Van Heflin the farmer who risks his life to bring him to justice. Frankie Laine sings the theme song. July 1, 3, 5, 7, 9-11, 13, 15, 17, 19, 21-23, 25, 27-30. $1.00

Candice Bergen and Giancarlo Giannini in a stunning, complex love story. Rated R. July 1-5, 7-13, 15, 17, 19-23, 25-31. $2.00

7. Youngblood Hawke (1964). James Franciscus, Suzanne Pleshette, Genevieve Page and Eva Gabor star in the movie version of Herman Wouk's bestselling novel. Complicated business and romantic involvements haunt a successful young writer. July 1, 2, 4-9, 11-14, 16, 18, 20-22, 24, 25, 27, 29, 30. $1.00

8. Born Yesterday (1951). See the dumbest, most lovable of all the "dumb blondes," Judy Holliday! She won an Oscar for her role as Billie Dawn. Broderick Crawford is her boyfriend, a big-time crook with his eye on a lucrative international deal. William Holden co-stars as a crusading writer hired by Crawford to teach Billie big-city manners. July 2, 3, 5, 6, 9, 11-13, 15, 16, 18, 20, 21, 23, 24, 26, 28, 30. $1.00

A Qube Premiere!

Your whole family will fall in love with Barnaby the koala bear this month on your "Drive In" channel (P8).

Barnaby's co-star is lovable villain Sid Caesar.

His escapades are sure to delight your children — and don't be surprised if you find yourself laughing, too! This fine, new Australian-made movie co-stars Juliet Mills.

It's rated G. July 2-5, 7-30. $2.00
